• he explains concepts very well with lots of examples and practice problems • Chukwuma is a very good professor. He knows there's an accent barrier, but speaks slowly enough so we understand. • He was a great teacher and very clearly explained concepts! • This professor is very determined that his students succeed even in a difficult course. He encourages us to work hard and to ask questions and always makes sure we know what is expected of us. • The reviews for the test were very straightforward and he would never make it challenging for us to understand the assignments given. • My teacher is one of the most helpful and eager individuals with his students. There is a clear indication that he wants his students to succeed and understand the concepts of the course, and it is reflected by his instruction and his communication with the class. I thoroughly enjoy the way his instructional practices are set up, and I believe he allows room for students to truly learn (what I mean by this is to make errors, learn from them, and to grow as a learner of the class). • He is an amazing teacher and really helped me understand Microeconomics. • I felt prepared for all of the exams and the notes we took in class were great. The teacher was great and provided the class with the help that we needed. The study guides and reviews also helped a lot. • Mr. Nwoye made it very clear that he was always available to help us when needed. He always gives us his office hours, encourages us to email him, visit him in person, and offers to help. I have stayed after class multiple times to ask questions and he is always willing to stay. • This class, while later in the day than I'd like, was still easy. The teacher does a great job at explaining and encouraging students to think more critically and even draws it out for visual learners like me. While my class has always been quiet, he never stopped making sure no one had questions and when someone does, he makes sure they understand before moving on. • He always encouraged questions, was very approachable, explained topics clearly, and his exams were fair. • My instructor is very helpful, and his instruction is very clear and he encourages participation. • I think that my teacher made his expectations for the course clear, and he did his best to ensure that we learned and had the resources to learn everything that we needed to know. • He was an amazing teacher. • I am happy with my professors teaching- he explained everything very clearly and extensively so it made sense and I was able to study effectively. • Professor Nwoye is a very engaging professor. He allows for open discussions in class that strongly support learning. He also explains material very clearly and is always willing to help if students don't understand! • I had been out sick and he had met me with me during his office hours to go over what I had missed. It helped me a lot. He also would provide great resources for the exams. • He was an overall great teacher. • Professor Nwoye always emphasized what student needed to learn in class, and developed concepts very well. • I liked the way this subject was taught and was easy to understand • Went over all the questions on any assignment he gave. Spent more than enough time on every concept. • I feel as though the instructor understood what he was teaching deeply and he provided very good exam material prep. • I am not very good at economics, but this course and instructor communicated what I had to know in an easy to follow and helpful way by engaging with the class often and creating helpful assignments to do own ur own.
